

Ingham Russell Investment Advisors, Inc. Form CRS

Item 1 Introduction

3/30/2022

Ingham Russell Investment Advisors, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an Investment Adviser.

Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences. The SEC offers free and simple tools to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS which also provides information tailored to educate retail investors about financial professionals.

Item 2 Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Our firm offers the following principal investment advisory services to retail investors.

Our firm provides investment discretion for the following services. If you invest on a discretionary basis, our firm will buy and sell investments in your accounts without requiring your pre-approval on an ongoing basis until you notify us in writing to switch.

- Financial planning—monitored continuously as part of our standard service. In financial plans we only make recommendations and monitor assets we advise..
- Retirement planning—monitored continuously as part of our standard service. For individual retirement planning we only make recommendations and monitor assets we advise.
- Portfolio management—monitored continuously as part of our standard service.
- Buying and selling securities—monitored continuously as part of our standard service.
- Personal investment strategies—monitored continuously as part of our standard service.

Minimum Account size is generally $100,000 but exceptions will be made for Clients' family members and certain IRA rollovers.

For additional information including minimum investment amounts, please see www.ingham.com or <https://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/default.aspx> for our Form ADV, 2A brochure (Items 4 and 7 of Part 2A or Items 4.A. and 5 of Part 2A Appendix 1).

Conversation starters. Ask your financial professional:

– Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

– What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 Fees, Costs, Conflicts and Standard of Conflict

What fees will I pay?

Our fees can be assessed quarterly and are disclosed in our Form ADV Part 1A, Item 5.E. and more fully described in our Form ADV Part 2A, Items 5.A., B., C., and D. Some fees create a conflict of interest described below and in more detail in our Firm's Part 2A.

- If our firm charges you asset based fees, more assets in the account will cause you to pay more in fees and therefore we may have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of money invested in those accounts.

There are other fees and costs related to our investment advisory services and investments in addition to the principal fees and costs listed above that you will pay directly or indirectly. Examples of the most common fees and costs are .

Additional Information:

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (specifically Items 5.A., B., C., and D.) which can be found at www.ingham.com or <https://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/default.aspx>.

Conversation starters. Ask your financial professional:

– Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are examples to help you understand what this means.

- Our firm receives revenue from other parties and has a financial incentive to offer products where the firm benefits. This arrangement will impact the value of your investment over time.
- Retirement Plan Administration, Record Keeping and Consulting.

Conversation starters. Ask your financial professional:

– How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Additional information:

For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (specifically Items 5.A., B., C., and D.) which can be found at www.ingham.com or <https://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/default.aspx>.

How do your financial professionals make money?

- for certain clients Consultants receive a percentage of the revenue the firm earns on assets associated with client accounts serviced by the consultant.
